

Author Full Name : Sara RangerReceived Date : 02/25/2025 08:42 AMComments Received :

I've heard from several friends that they are afraid to travel out of the country for both business and pleasure because they are afraid of having their passports seized. Some friends are afraid to even have their passports updated/corrected for the same reason. Most of these friends are trans but not all. Every single person deserves to have the documents we regularly use for identity reflect their actual identity.