

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/25/2025 09:23 AM

Comments Received :

The gender identity of a person should remain a protected class. If a person was originally born as one sex but identifies as a different sex due to many factors this should be left up to that person. In order to change their physical appearance, this takes a lot of money, appointments with multiple doctors and a lot of time. It should not be the governments responsibility to tell a person what they can and can't be as dependent on the ideology of a select few.