

Author Full Name : Carrie StrickReceived Date : 02/25/2025 07:54 PMComments Received :

Please reconsider the policy change to not allow transgender people to put their identified gender on their passport. It is cruel and not based on scientific evidence. You are targeting the most vulnerable population to make an antiquated point. Transgender people deserve the same rights as anyone. This measure causes undue harm and trauma. Please consider how this affects people in your community. Please consider basic human rights and decency when developing policy changes. Thank you