

Author Full Name : Theodore Isoz

Received Date : 02/25/2025 10:23 PM

Comments Received :

I am a transgender person, and traveling with a passport and a gender marker that does not match my physical appearance is scary, dangerous in some countries, and emotionally harmful. Furthermore, this policy erases the reality of people who are intersex and differences of sex development. Many people are not biologically categorizable as male or female, and forcing a male/female designation is not reality.