

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/26/2025 10:59 AM

Comments Received :

I strongly oppose efforts by the federal government to police the gender identity of its citizens through passport documentation. Making it difficult for transgender and nonbinary people to accurately update their identification documents is not in the public interest. It only causes confusion, hardship and fear. Is that the goal of our government? Cut it out!