

Author Full Name : Kirsten WeismantleReceived Date : 02/26/2025 12:24 PMComments Received :

I oppose the change from gender to sex at birth as it provides no benefit to the passport reviewer in identifying the passport holder at boarders. In addition it puts undue burden upon the passport holder upon entry or exit to prove sex when their gender presentation better represents their appearance. This proposed change is a waste of tax paying dollars, adding additional bureaucratic red tape to an already onerous process. It is clearly a small minded act of oppression by Trump Administration.