

Author Full Name : Carolyn GouldReceived Date : 02/26/2025 02:06 PMComments Received :

I strongly object to including gender assigned at birth on passports. There are a number of reasons for my objection, including the fact that sometimes errors are made. The executive order that claims to be protecting women from extremist gender ideology not only does not protect women at all, but place transgender people at risk unnecessarily. It is also a huge overreach of the federal government into personal freedoms and a waste of taxpayer money. Thank you for your consideration.