

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/26/2025 03:05 PM

Comments Received :

The passport application process should remain as it was before January of 2025. Changes being made to the application process, especially around gender markers and the refusal to issue passports to transgender individuals is a blatant violation of those citizen's rights.