

Author Full Name : Daria Chelbegean

Received Date : 02/26/2025 03:42 PM

Comments Received :

Making people select only their biological sex at birth is discriminatory against trans and intersex individuals. It can lead to problems with their identification documents & also to violence against these individuals. They are already a class of individuals that need extra protection & care as they face extreme discrimination. Don't add to it & certainly not with my tax dollars.