

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/26/2025 05:16 PMComments Received :

Individuals should be allowed to select the gender marker on their passport application that best fits their gender identity. The "x" gender marker should always be one of the options allowed for selection. Individuals should be able to change names and gender markers on passport renewals, and these changes should never be used to burden travel or discriminate against the applicant.