

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/26/2025 10:06 PM

Comments Received :

I am the family member of a transgender individual. The proposed changes that require individuals to disclose their biological sex at birth for purposes of applying for a passport violates the first amendment right of the U.S. Constitution by requiring people like my family member to have a listed sex designation on his passport that conflicts with his identity. The proposed policy requiring this disclosure has no practical purpose and is a waste of taxpayer money.