

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/26/2025 10:05 PM

Comments Received :

I am the family member of a transgender individual. The proposed changes that require individuals to disclose their biological sex at birth for purposes of passport renewal violate the first amendment right of the U.S. Constitution by requiring people like my family member to have a listed sex designation on his passport that conflicts with his identity. The proposed policy requiring this disclosure has no practical purpose and is a waste of taxpayer money.