

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/27/2025 01:54 AMComments Received :

I strongly oppose the changes to the US new passport application form. By making it harder for transgender people to get a passport with a gender marker that matches their gender identity, transgender citizens will be subject to discrimination traveling abroad. It would also create huge problems domestically, as transgender citizens have a right to identification documents that reflect their identity. This is a huge safety issue and our country should remember to serve all of its people, including those who are transgender.