

Author Full Name : Mary Schmidt

Received Date : 02/27/2025 11:41 AM

Comments Received :

Having a person being able to change their sex marker and gender identity on their passport is crucial for their personal safety. My safety as a cis woman is not affected in anyway by a persons own decision to have their actual gender identity reflected in their passport. And the trans community is such a small percentage of the population - you're making up a problem that doesn't exist.