

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/27/2025 05:58 PM

Comments Received :

Changing people's gender markers on their passports against their wishes is not reasonable or efficient. It would be much easier and cheaper to just put whatever they say should be there and let them decide what they want it to say, so that it can match what they know their other IDs have on them.