I mean what can I say? You're basically just being dickheads to the small percent of people this impacts who have always been there for no reason. Someone told you to be pissed off and like a puppet, you were. I guess just enjoy being that. Hope that's satisfying for you. I imagine it can't be though since you don't even really grasp it outside of "man in dress bad". I hope trans men (who are born with vaginas mind you) cause tons of unwanted ruckus for you in girls rooms (where you require they go).
