

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/28/2025 04:36 AM

Comments Received :

Trans people are people and they should be treated with the same respect we give cis people. Changing someone's gender on their passport is unnecessary and inhumane, the government should be focused on real issues right now not worried about people's individual gender identity, which is their business and theirs only.