

Author Full Name : Lindi Edens

Received Date : 02/28/2025 02:58 PM

Comments Received :

I do not agree with the decision to remove the X gender marker and the ability for citizens to update their sex after transition. By requiring citizens to claim a sex on their passport which doesn't match their physical appearance, it can cause harm to those individuals when they attempt to travel. In addition, it can also cause a restriction of movement into another country, when the gender marker does not align with appearance. This is making American citizens less safe.