

Author Full Name : Eve Krueger

Received Date : 02/28/2025 04:40 PM

Comments Received :

I believe it is a waste of time and taxpayer money to adjust passport standards in such a way that targets less than 1% of our nations population, but will effect the millions of and millions of people who have legally changed their name for any reason (many of them married women). Additionally, the proposed changes place an undue burden on citizens who have already sufficiently proved citizenship and identity.