

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/28/2025 09:40 PM

Comments Received :

Trans people have always existed, and they continue to exist. They should be left to live their lives in peace, and not have the government interfere with their gender choices.

Also, intersex people exist. And have always existed. And cannot be categorized as male or female.

It is inhumane to force people to choose the "sex assigned at birth" on their passports.