

Author Full Name : David SummerlinReceived Date : 03/01/2025 09:08 AMComments Received :

I am in favor of passports having the X sex marker. To revert to the male/female only options completely negates the presence of trans individuals. This is the most accurate way to help identify individuals and there is absolutely no harm by using X as an option. Negating this option is nothing more than an attempt to discriminate and exclude a very real and vulnerable demographic of our society. Trans citizens deserve the same rights and privileges M/F citizens.