

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/01/2025 10:19 AMComments Received :

The way someone identifies their gender has absolutely no bearing on the safety and security of international travel and as such, this change is only designed as a way for our current administration to exert control over vulnerable populations, including both trans and cisgender people. Please do not implement this change! It sets a dangerous precedent for our federal government to continue pushing the agenda of a very small but powerful and dangerous group of people.