

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/01/2025 03:23 PMComments Received :

The current restrictions that have been placed on transgender, nonbinary, and intersex people are absolutely disgusting. We are a free nation and the "land of opportunity" but only for those the government deems deserving the current administration has shown this time and time again. Stripping citizens of their right to accurate identification is not only deplorable, but dangerous this executive order is placing the individuals effected in danger when entering foreign countries and when returning to America.