

Author Full Name : Rosaria Clark

Received Date : 03/02/2025 06:33 AM

Comments Received :

I ask that you please go back on this. These changes are not helping anyone, and will only cause harm and confusion.

Trans people are very much real and exist (I am one such individual), and enforcing rules such as these won't make us go away.

It will, however, promote further discrimination, as well as confusion and potential difficulties for trans people having a gender marker that clearly does not match their appearance.