

Author Full Name : Sam Bailey

Received Date : 03/03/2025 05:12 AM

Comments Received :

With the recent changes to require Gender at birth I worry about those that have fully transitioned to appear as the opposite Gender, Or were born in such a way to appear as the other and requested as such on their passport. With these new changes, it will scrutinize them as they won't appear as their actual looks imply. This could lead to more confusion when trying to travel outside the country, it also could lead to harassment by staff members who disagree with the ability to change.