

Author Full Name : S L

Received Date : 03/03/2025 10:55 AM

Comments Received :

To perform sweeping changes under an executive order [which is not a law, nor part of the Constitution] in regard to passport and identification in general designated markers is reckless and unnecessary. I no longer know whether or not my paperwork is credible for international or even continental travel. What good does this do anyone?