

Author Full Name : Nathen SwansonReceived Date : 03/03/2025 03:26 PMComments Received :

This is an unnecessary change made to target a small and vulnerable minority. It will bring no benefits to the majority of the population. Additionally, the change provides less information on applicants as knowing the present identified gender of an individual is of more importance than the one they were assigned at birth. For organizational and moral purposes, retaining the previous standard is the better option and this change will bring no greater efficiency. It will bring harm at the cost of efficiency.