

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/03/2025 06:11 PMComments Received :

The proposed plan to restrict gender marker updates to only the information provided at birth creates an undue burden that targets minority groups in the country. The burden will not be borne solely by the minority group and will result in further discrimination at best and, more likely, harm. This plan seeks to identify and single out an at-risk minority group for the purposes of discrimination and stands to restrict those same peoples rights.