

Author Full Name : Marisa Seitz

Received Date : 03/03/2025 09:13 PM

Comments Received :

There are more than two genders in the world. This is true socially (non-binary people) and medically (intersex). It has been recognized by the federal government, as there are many people with X gender markers on their legal documents. To only allow two gender options would leave people in legal limbo and disrespect their identities. Do not do this.