

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/03/2025 09:47 PM

Comments Received :

Forcing people transgender to use passports that only reflect their gender assigned at birth is blatant discrimination. It also doesn't make sense from a practical perspective. If a person dresses like a woman, looks like a woman, and is known to the people around them as a woman, then a document stating otherwise fails to serve as useful identification.