

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/04/2025 04:42 PMComments Received :

I'm commenting on the topic of the mandate to list the biological sex at birth on the passport. The purpose of a passport is to accurately identify someone as a citizen, and the requirement to list a sex that may not correspond to someone's appearance and preference could at best lead to confusion and at worst unreasonably restrict their travel. I hope you can consider the impact of such a seemingly innocuous change on the travel experiences of all people. Thanks!