

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/05/2025 01:13 PM

Comments Received :

To deny individuals the ability to renew their passports because of their chosen gender is unlawful, immoral, and unconstitutional. The prejudices of a select few should not dictate the personhood and human rights of millions of Americans. I ask that the Department of State continue to treat all citizens equally regardless of how they identify; to do otherwise would be fundamentally un-American.