

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/05/2025 07:46 PMComments Received :

This proposal is discriminatory and unnecessary. It contradicts existing legal precedents affirming gender identity on official documents and violates American citizens' right to privacy for no justifiable reason. It places an unnecessary onus on ordinary Americans to disclose irrelevant but personally sensitive details of their private medical history in order to exercise their ability to travel. Assigned sex at birth has no bearing on a person's right to obtain identifying documents. Again, this proposal has no legal or scientific justification, and serves no useful purpose.