

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/05/2025 08:36 PMComments Received :

The recent changes are greatly unjust and targeting US citizens. This gender crusade targeting LGBT and intersex people is a waste of tax payer funds and agency time. American citizens have a right to be issued passports aligning with their identities if they have followed the legal steps for name and gender change in their state. These changes to the form around birth gender do not reflect our benefit the country.