I'm a proud, hardworking, tax-paying citizen of the United States of America; however due to the current administrations actions, I am unable to make sufficient changes to my identifying documents I worked hard to correct, as is my right. These changes could threaten the lives of people who actively contribute to the nation they were once proud. They are barbaric, illogical, and most importantly, unconstitutional, regardless of what they might lead you to believe. This is already a dangerous environment we have been living in, with divisive rhetoric, and even blatantly targeting terminology. If we continue down this path, we may never recover as a nation.
