

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/05/2025 11:10 PM

Comments Received :

The transphobic nature of this executive order is as insidious as it is blatant- by systematically stripping away the rights of trans people the government labels them as other, as targets, as people that can and should be punished severely for simply existing. To allow this order to pass is to allow countless human rights violations across the nation- violations we cannot afford and will not stand by.