

Author Full Name : Laura Madson

Received Date : 03/05/2025 11:09 PM

Comments Received :

Verifying identity is more validly done when using an individual's current gender identity than sex assigned at birth, which may be different than that documented on other current official documents/records. Mismatched records may make international study or travel impossible or dangerous.