- These changes are blatantly unconstitutional and unenforceable.
- (If you're cis) Trans people have every right to travel and to non-discriminatory identifying documents as I do.
- This change would endanger American citizens traveling abroad.
- You can play some median-voter angle and be like "Why is this what we're doing when [the economy / veterans / etc]"
- There is already court precedent on this.
- Get the government off of people's bodies and out of their self-expression.
