

Author Full Name : Linda Madson

Received Date : 03/06/2025 10:15 AM

Comments Received :

I am strongly opposed to this change in passport application policy. People should be able to have their gender marker on their passport to reflect their identified gender. I am a psychiatrist and discrimination against transgendered people costs lives. It is unconscionable. There are clear developmental and scientific reasons why transgender people exist. It is a matter of biology not choice.