

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/06/2025 05:05 PM

Comments Received :

This change introduces many problems and discrepancies unnecessarily.

There are concerns with how individuals who were born neither “biological male” or “biological female” because intersex individuals are born every day. This change places an undue burden on such individuals, or individuals whose sex differs from their gender, from obtaining a passport easily and speedily.

Essentially this change places an entire group of people into a second-class, and is discriminatory, affecting some citizens' lives, while sparing others this burden.