

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/07/2025 11:26 AMComments Received :

Please explain why requiring someone's sex at birth on their passport protects women - versus their current gender marker information. All it does is expose my trans brothers and sisters to additional scrutiny and harassment. This is a waste of taxpayer dollars and time, and makes us look cruel and backward to the rest of the world. We need to spend less time policing genitals and more time worrying about why a South African billionaire needs to know the dollar value of my parents' social security checks.