

Author Full Name : Kit WalshReceived Date : 03/07/2025 12:34 PMComments Received :

The attempt to comply with a scientifically and legally nonsensical executive order only serves to increase the burden on state department employees and transgender Americans. It is a waste of valuable time to require investigation of citizens' birth certificate genders, past passport genders, etc. The process of changing your name on a passport is already challenging and time consuming enough to deter malfeasance. Adding additional stipulations for certain Americans is unconstitutional and goes against the values of the United States to treat all citizens equally.