

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/07/2025 08:39 PM

Comments Received :

Requiring the applicant's biological sex at birth does not protect the security of those traveling OR help with identifying the traveler. It is a blatant attack on a minuscule minority of people.

It is not "defending women" from anything. "Biological truth" is utter nonsense in the context of accurately identifying travelers. This change is pointless and will only cause unnecessary cost.