

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/08/2025 05:03 PMComments Received :

I oppose the change requiring one's sex at birth. Requiring one's sex on one's passport to be their sex at birth undermines the usefulness of the passport in identifying the passport holder, as some people's sex differs from their sex at birth. This new requirement undermines the purpose of the passport and so undermines the safety, security, and purpose of the passport system. To do right by Americans and America, this change should be reversed.