

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 03/08/2025 10:34 PM

Comments Received :

Adults should have the freedom and legal right to change the name & gender marker listed on their identification. Some would argue the gender marker itself is entirely unnecessary, but if it must be included, citizens should have a say in what their own gender marker should say. This will also allow citizens to keep their documentation better aligned, reducing the steps of paperwork processing in local and federal agencies.