

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 03/09/2025 07:48 AMComments Received :

US citizens deserve the right to have documents that reflect their legal name and gender markers. Only allowing for "M" and "F" markers on passports forces citizens to declare a gender that may be incorrect for them, both socially and medically, in the case of intersex people. As a matter of personal dignity and autonomy, citizens should be allowed to update their passport name and gender marker and to not have passports in which the fields were updated to be invalidated.