

Author Full Name : Terri Harmon

Received Date : 03/09/2025 09:47 AM

Comments Received :

Trans people are people just like everyone else. They should not be discriminated against. Forcing them to provide their biological sex at birth and not their current identification is unnecessary and discriminatory. There are biological reasons why the sex recorded on their birth certificate at the time they are born may not be correct.