

Author Full Name : Ania Hornberger

Received Date : 03/10/2025 12:36 PM

Comments Received :

The X response for gender should remain as a choice on passports for intersexed and non binary individuals. It's such a small thing but means the world to some people. It's just a nice thing we can do for such a small portion of our population - I don't see what the big issue is. Most people are male or female, some are not. For them, an X makes more sense.