

Author Full Name : Carole MarkoffReceived Date : 03/12/2025 04:03 PMComments Received :

The sex identification of the individual renewing their passport should be whatever they indicate they are. The government has no right to arbitrarily decide your gender if you consider yourself a different gender. This does not affect the government in any way but can have profound problems for the individual. This is just a very nasty attempt to marginalize people for no actual reason. We always thought our country was better than that. We hope it will be and this is the start of eliminating this discrimination.