

Author Full Name : Alan Crane

Received Date : 03/13/2025 07:38 PM

Comments Received :

I object to the proposed policy of requiring trans, intersex, and nonbinary people to out themselves on passports or other documents. This could pose serious risks to them. You may not like what they have done, but like everyone else they have made a personal choice and deserve privacy. This policy won't provide usable security information to the government. Rather it is a vicious attack on vulnerable people.

Alan Crane